King Edward at Vesuvius

The weather continuing fine, King Edward said he would not leave Naples without visiting the observators, as no desired to meet Professor Matteneci and Frank Perret, of Brooklyn, N. Y., assistant director of the Royal Observatory on Mount Vesuvius The Duke and Duchess of Aosta were delighted and offered to guide the King. Five au tomobiles were ordered to convey the royal party to Mount Vesavius.

King Edward, Queen Alexandra and the Duke and Duchess of Aosta arrived at the observato y yesterday afternoon where they were met by Professors Mat-teucci and Perret. The King congratu-lated both the scientists on their work, and drew from them a minute account of their experiences in the days they assed as prisoners in the observatory during the recent eruption of Vesuvius period in which the seismologists were xposed to momentary danger of a hor rib'e death. The party also examined with keen interest the instruments in the bservatory and the records which they had traced while the disturbance was in

Afterward the royal party ascended above to the observatory through two feet of volcanic ash, which had scarcely dried since the torrential rains of last week. The fatigue of the walk was repaid by a view of the smoking volcano, beteath which spread the devastated plains and
